

Strengthen Relationships With Your Business Partners

In an industry focused on the transactional level of supply chain management, UTS brings a unique strategic perspective.

We see opportunities to strengthen every link in your supply chain.

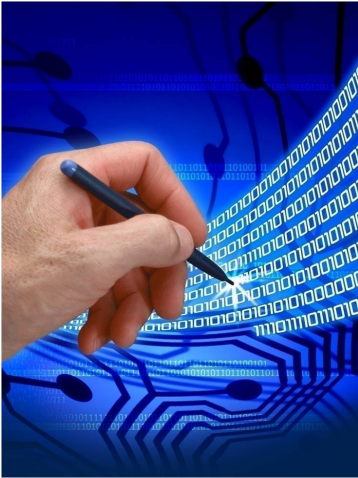

Strengthen Relationships With Customers

Every outbound shipment is an opportunity to influence a customer's perception of – and satisfaction with – your company.

Our customer relationship enhancements include:

- Improved on-time delivery performance
- Real-time visibility of your shipments
- Active management with early notification of transit issues
- Online access to shipment documentation and activity history

Strengthen Relationships With Suppliers

Every inbound shipment is an opportunity to help a supplier work more effectively and more efficiently with you.

Our supplier relationship enhancements include:

- Online shipment entry optimized for speed and accuracy
- Automatic generation of BOLs and shipping labels
- Visibility of current and historical activity
- You have real-time visibility, eliminating update requests
- Records coded with BOL and PO numbers
- Vendor discipline program

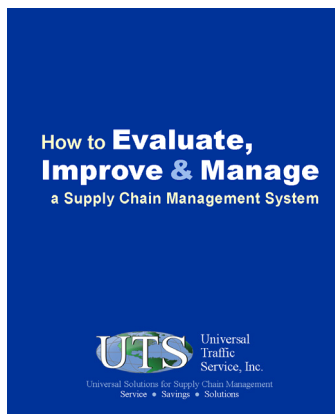

Strengthen Relationships With Internal Stakeholders

Every process is an opportunity to streamline workflow through your organization and push data to your decision makers.

- Satisfaction among internal customers grows as you streamline work and costs across your organization.
- The cumulative value of the efficiencies gained is very high. Some clients report related operating costs dropped 35%.
- Greater visibility and control over your supply chain, which helps manage results and facilitate corporate planning.
